

MELODICELLO STUDIO

MUSIC MATERIALS

This is a list of materials I use most often for students from beginner level through high school. It is not meant to be all-inclusive. Good sources for music are Amazon.com and Sharmusic.com. Cellos2go.com sells cello music and accessories for cello.

Students will use the Suzuki Books as the basis of their repertoire through book 8. The later books include many of the traditional short pieces for cello. Supplemental solos will be added along the way and these are listed alphabetically by composer.

After completing Suzuki Book 8, the student will move on to concerti, solo Bach, sonatas, etc. (The Suzuki editions of the Haydn C major concerto in book 9 and the Goltermann Concerto in Bb in book 10 are not used)

Carl Schroeder Etude Books will be used to establish the basis of music reading in the bass clef in book 1, the tenor clef in book 2 and the treble clef in book 3.

Scale work will start in Schroeder book 1 with two octave scales and then eventually progress to the Galamian Scale System using more octaves with varied rhythms and bowings.
